SCHEDULE 11

CAMPAIGN FINANCING

Under the Political Process Financing Act only certain designated individuals may solicit contributions. The chief agent, as such, MAY NOT solicit contributions.

For the most part campaigns will be financed by way of transfers from the party.

Loans for election purposes must be arranged by the official representative of the party and be reported by him/her on the party financial return. Proceeds from such loans made available to the chief agent for election purposes are to be shown as a "Transfer In" from the party.
