Election advertising expenses

PPFA, section 84.15; paragraphs 84.6(2)(a), (b)

PPFA, section 84.1:

“Election advertising expense” means an amount paid, a liability incurred or the value of a non-monetary contribution accepted for the purpose of producing or transmitting election advertising.

“Election advertising” means a message transmitted to the public by any means during a campaign period that promotes or opposes a registered political party or the election of a candidate or takes a position on an issue with which a registered political party or a candidate is associated, but does not include the following:

- (a) the transmission to the public of an editorial, a debate, a speech, an interview, a column, a letter, a commentary or news;
- (b) the distribution of a book, or the promotion of the sale of a book, for no less than its commercial value, if it was planned that the book be made available to the public regardless of whether there was an election;
- (c) the transmission of a document directly by a person or a group to its members, employees or shareholders, as the case may be; and
- (d) the transmission by an individual, on a non-commercial basis, of his or her personal political views via the Internet.

PPFA, section 84.15:

(2) Not more than 10% of the total amount of allowable election advertising expenses ... shall be incurred for election advertising that relates to a single electoral district.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), election advertising relates to a single electoral district if

- (a) the election advertising promotes or opposes the election of one or more of the electoral district’s candidates, or
- (b) the election advertising is transmitted in the electoral district in any of the following forms:
  - (i) handbills;
  - (ii) posters;
  - (iii) billboards;
  - (iv) electronic billboards;
  - (v) other types of signs.

(4) For election advertising transmitted during the campaign period for a by-election, a third party shall not incur expenses for election advertising that relates to a single electoral district that in total exceed the amount calculated in accordance with subsection (2) for the most recently held general election.
