

Education Sessions

The Government of New Brunswick offers free education sessions on the Employment Standards Act.

Offered provincewide in both official languages, French and English, these education sessions can be tailored to any request: one-on-one or in a group setting.

With education sessions, employees and employers can be more informed of their own rights and responsibilities in New Brunswick.

The education sessions can cover:

- Rules of payment and payroll records.
- Minimum wage/overtime and minimum reporting wage.
- Notice of dismissal, layoff or termination.
- Paid public holidays and vacation/vacation pay.
- Foreign workers.
- Employment of children.
- All leaves under the Employment Standards Act including domestic, intimate partner and sexual violence leave, maternity leave and child care leave.

Set up an education session

To request a session, or for any questions regarding the Employment Standards Act, please contact us in one of the following ways:

- By phone, on our toll-free line at:
 - o 1-888-452-2687
- By email: EmploymentStandards@gnb.ca
- In person at our nearest Employment Standards Office.